

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

A busy month once again. The Jukebox competition in Tauranga was great fun. It was hilarious watching Malcolm Mazur dance his fast section when he had a mishap with his trousers and had to dance alternating his hands to keep up his trousers.

Damon Schubert and Kelly Melvin placed 2nd in both the Platinum and Golden Finals. Chris Pellow and Sarah Laurie placed 1st in the Novice Final and 4th in the Masters Final.

We now look forward to their competing at this year's Nationals, along with Trevor & Kim Carman and James Sparks & Kirsty Williams. Our Top Team this year consists of James Sparks, Kirsty Williams, Hannah Gleeson, Brooke Williams and Trevor & Kim Carman. We also have members competing in the Sunday morning Best Dressed section and the Novelty at the end of Sunday.

We have just over 50 people from our club attending so it will make for a great weekend and noisy support for our competitors.

Senior Nationals Dress Rehearsal

Competitors will have a dress rehearsal on Sunday 12 October at 2.30 pm at Star of the Sea School, 14 Oakridge Way, Howick. Entry is free. Club members, friends and family all welcome.

Howick Hop – calling for club members to dance

Saturday 11 October - The club has been given a slot to dance, with the band Foxtail Rumble, from 10.15 am to 10.50 am at the Hop. We would love it if any of you could come along to dance, or support the club with your attendance. A wonderful way to promote the club. If you are dancing, can you please dress in rock and roll clothing. The venue is on the corner of Picton Street/Uxbridge Road. Our very own Greg Vine is emcee and also performing some Elvis.

Senior Nationals Weekend Passes

If you wish to attend the National competition at Labour weekend in Rotorua you only have until 17 October. Tickets purchased now will have to be picked up from the venue. The club asks that you purchase tickets yourself. THERE ARE NO DOOR SALES THIS YEAR.

If you wish to purchase tickets please find the form attached to this email.
